CHRISTOPH STEURI, GENERAL MANAGER

Appointed general manager of Ko`a Kea Hotel & Resort in 2007, Christoph Steuri boasts more than 25 years of experience in the hospitality industry. As general manager, Mr. Steuri has played an integral role in overseeing the resort's multi-million dollar reconstruction, which includes a fresh new design of all guest rooms, the addition of The Spa at Ko`a Kea, and an innovative restaurant, Red Salt.

A Switzerland native, Steuri is fluent in three languages and encompasses a vast knowledge of the hospitality industry. His appointment to Ko`a Kea Hotel & Resort was preceded by 10 years at Stanford Court Hotel in San Francisco where the hotel landed on several award lists.

After graduating from Business School in Bern, Switzerland and the prestigious Hotel School of Lausanne, Switzerland, Steuri's first hotel position was with Westin Hotels in the United States, where he held several department head positions. Over the course of his career, Steuri has managed a number of distinctive properties, including the Renaissance Vancouver Hotel; Stouffer Nashville Hotel, Tennessee; Poipu Beach Resort, Kauai, Hawaii; and Wailea Beach Resort, Maui, Hawai'i.

Steuri resides in Kauai, Hawaii with his wife and two children. Steuri and his wife, originally from Maui, are eager and excited for the opportunity to expose their children to their Hawaiian roots.
